State of South Carolina

Affidavit

Horry County

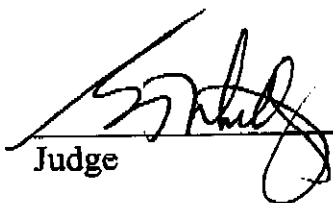

Personally appeared before me one Agent James L. Johnson after being duly sworn, dispose and says.

That on March 31, 2000 Noah H. Allen was arrested by Trooper G.L. Stith of the South Carolina Highway Patrol for Driving Under the Influence. Noah H. Allen provided Agents of The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division with a sworn written statement, stating that on or about April 10, 2000, he spoke with Ronald Stalvey Jr. about the Driving Under the Influence arrest. Stalvey Jr. informed Allen that for the sum of $3,000.00 he could have the criminal charge of Driving Under the Influence dismissed. Allen further stated that Ronald Stalvey Jr. instructed him to bring any and all correspondence that he received from the Horry County Magistrates Office and the State of South Carolina Department of Public Safety to him at his place of business located at 1605 4th Avenue, Conway, South Carolina. Allen further stated that over a period of time he did deliver all correspondences he received regarding the Driving Under the Influence arrest to Ronald Stalvey Jr. at his liquor store located at 1605 4th Ave. Conway, South Carolina.

After being interviewed, Ronald Stalvey Jr. began cooperating with investigators and indicated that Trooper R.C. Smith and himself did have an agreement to take money from individuals that received Driving Under the Influence tickets and resolve these tickets by dismissal. Mr. Stalvey Jr. then met with Trooper R.C. Smith and recorded conversations between himself and Trooper R.C. Smith during which they did engage in conversations concerning disposing of a traffic ticket in exchange for money. Moreover, that Trooper R.C. Smith did state the excuse he would provide SLED officers if he was interviewed and did tell or discuss the story Mr. Stalvey Jr. should relate to the investigators if he was further questioned. Trooper R.C. Smith was involved in his official capacity as a Trooper with the South Carolina Highway. Trooper R.C. Smith did commit the crimes of Criminals Conspiracy, Misconduct in Office, Obstruction of Justice and Soliciting anything of value for the performance of his duties. This being in violation of the South Carolina Code of law as amended 1976.

That on October 28, 2001, L/Cpl. B.L. Walters of The South Carolina Highway Patrol issued James M. Calhoun Jr. a traffic citation for Driving Under the Influence. James M. Calhoun Jr. provided Agents of The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division with a sworn statement, stating that on or about November 5, 2001, he spoke with Patricia A. Tompkins about a Driving Under the Influence ticket. Tompkins informed Calhoun that she knew someone that could get the ticket fixed. Calhoun further stated that Tompkins informed him that she did talk to the Trooper Redding C. Smith about the Driving Under the Influence ticket and Smith stated that he could have it fixed for the sum of $800.00. Calhoun further stated that prior to his court date he spoke with Tompkins about the ticket and she stated that Trooper Smith informed her that the ticket was taken care of and Calhoun should not worry about going to court.

Moreover, that Trooper Redding C. Smith did go to the residence of Patricia A. Tompkins at 7755 Hunting Swamp Road, Conway, S.C. and received from Tompkins the sum of $800.00 for disposing of the traffic ticket. Trooper Redding C. Smith was involved in his official capacity as a Trooper with the South Carolina Highway Patrol. Trooper Redding C. State of South Carolina

Horry County

Personally appeared before me one Agent James L. Johnson after being duly sworn, depose and says:

That on October 28, 2001, L/Cpl. B.L. Walters of The South Carolina Highway Patrol issued James M. Calhoun Jr. a traffic citation for Driving Under the Influence . James M. Calhoun Jr. provided Agents of The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division with a sworn statement, stating that on or about November 5, 2001, he spoke with Patricia A. Tompkins about a Driving Under the Influence ticket. Tompkins informed Calhoun that she knew someone that could get the ticket fixed. Calhoun further stated that Tompkins informed him that she did talked to the Trooper Redding C. Smith about the Driving Under the Influence ticket and Smith stated that he could have it fixed for the sum of $800.00. Calhoun further stated that prior to his court date he spoke with Tompkins about the ticket and she stated that Trooper Smith informed her that the ticket was taken care of and Calhoun should not worry about going to court.

Moreover, that Trooper Redding C. Smith did got to the residence of Patricia A. Tompkins at 7755 Hunting Swamp Road, Conway, S.C. and received from Tompkins the sum of $800.00 for disposing of the traffic ticket. Trooper Redding C. Smith was involved in his official capacity as a Trooper with the South Carolina Highway Patrol. Trooper Redding C. Smith did commit the crime of Criminal Conspiracy, Misconduct in Office, Obstruction of Justice and Soliciting anything of value for the performance of his duties. This being in violation of the South Carolina Code of Law as amended 1976.
